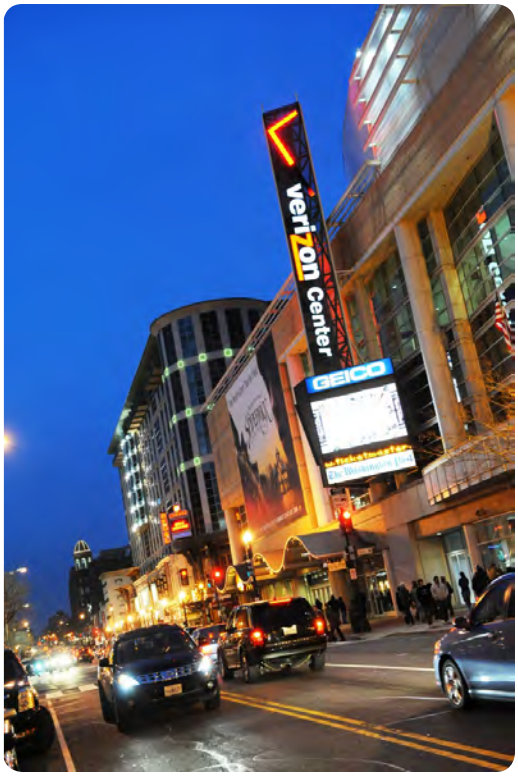
Verizon Center



Verizon Center is a 20,000-seat multi-purpose sports and entertainment venue, owned and operated by Monumental Sports & Entertainment, in the Penn Quarter neighborhood of Chinatown in downtown Washington, D.C. The arena is home to the NHL's Washington Capitals, the NBA's Washington Wizards, the WNBA's Washington Mystics, and the NCAA's Georgetown Hoyas men's basketball team. Boasting an average of 220 events per year, Verizon Center is the heart of a $6.7 billion redevelopment that began 13 years ago when the arena opened. The surrounding neighborhood details new restaurants, condominiums and businesses, as a full slate of concerts, family shows and world class tournaments fill the arena on an annual basis.

Boasting an average of 220 events per year, Verizon Center is the heart of a $6.7 billion redevelopment that began 13 years ago when the arena was envisioned and built by late owner Abe Pollin and his wife, Irene Pollin, after previously building the Capital Centre arena in Landover, Md. Since the Pollin's realized their vision on Dec. 2, 1997, with the opening of the privately financed new arena in downtown Washington, 33.4 million people have attended more than 2,810 events.

In June 2010, Ted Leonsis became the majority owner of Verizon Center and formed Monumental Sports & Entertainment. The newly formed entity includes ownership of the NBA's Washington Wizards, the NHL's Washington Capitals, the WNBA's Washington Mystics and Verizon Center. Monumental Sports & entertainment also manages Kettler Capitals Iceplex and the Patriot Center at George Mason University.

As an arena in the heart of downtown Washington, D.C., Verizon Center has hosted a multitude of high-profile events in its history, ranging from the 1998 Stanley Cup Final to the NBA (2001) and WNBA (2002, 2007) All-Star games to the 2003 World Figure Skating Championship, the 2005 ACC Tournament, the first and second rounds of the NCAA Division I men's basketball tournament (1998, 2002, 2008) as well as the second and third rounds (2011), the 2006 Washington Regional Round and the 2009 NCAA Frozen Four men's hockey championship.

Entertainment at the arena would not be complete without concerts and family shows ranging from all-time greats to current-day chart-topping artists. In the 13-year history of the arena some of the artists who have roamed the halls and mastered the stage at Verizon Center include: U2, Justin Timberlake, The Three Tenors, Barbra Streisand, Bon Jovi, Prince, Tim McGraw & Faith Hill, Beyonce, the Dalai Lama, Keith Urban, Jeff Dunham, Christina Aguilera, Disney on Ice and The Wiggles.

Located within the arena are 106 luxury suites, a high-definition center-hung scoreboard, an indoor basketball practice facility and 10 dressing rooms. The arena offers a variety of concession stands and restaurants with menu choices ranging from pizza at Papa John's to donuts at Dunkin Donuts. Additional arena fare includes hot dogs, crab cakes, chicken fingers and deli sandwiches. Kosher, vegetarian, vegan and gluten-free options are also available.

Other amenities in the arena include the private Owner's Club, the private Acela Club restaurant for club members, the Dewar's Coaches Club on the event level, The Player's Club, Dewar's 12 Clubhouse on the second level, Volkswagen Theatre, The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille, Team Store and VIDA Fitness and Bang Salon.

EXECUTIVE SUITES/PARTY PAVILION

A great way to enjoy events at Verizon Center is to entertain some friends and family or business associates in one of the 106 executive suites. The executive suites feature between 12 and 24 seats, a private seating area, refrigerator, a flat screen television and a private restroom. Additional benefits that offer the full VIP treatment for guests as they watch over 220 sporting events and concerts held annually at Verizon Center include membership to the Acela Club restaurant, early and late entry to events, and access to premium food catering services by Levy Restaurants.

The Captain Morgan Party Pavilion, overlooking the main floor of the arena, is another exciting option for entertaining up to 99 guests. The party pavilion features a glass-enclosed suite that can be customized for meetings and hospitality purposes, and can be rented out on an event-by-event basis. Entertaining can be broken down into groups of 34, 65 or 99 guests in the party pavilion. Premium catering and food service options are also offered by Levy Restaurants.

HIGH-DEFINITION SCOREBOARD AND LINEAR LED BOARDS

Debuting in the 2007-2008 season, the high-definition LED scoreboard is the first true indoor high-definition scoreboard of its kind for arenas. The center hung scoreboard exclusively features the Diamond Vision LED fascia, corner stat displays and video boards driven by ANC Sports' patent pending VisionSOFT operating system. Sitting at 14 feet 5 inches high x 25 feet 2 inches wide, the new scoreboard provides the highest clarity of all the action, including video playback, and exhibits over 68 billion colors. The scoreboard features four 6mm video screens, four 10mm LED video matrixes measuring 5ft x 25ft, and two 20mm LED rings. Over a 1,000 feet of linear LED boards encompass the upper bowl of the arena, as well as 400 feet of LED boards surrounding the lower bowl of the arena with full motion signage. Four additional LED displays highlight the top corners of the arena offering animation, 3D graphics and advertisements.

PRACTICE FACILITY

The Washington Wizards and the Washington Mystics have an NBA/WNBA regulation sized practice court inside the arena where all team practices are held. Located on the event level, players have easy access to and from the court. The practice court is also used for special events such as large press conferences and receptions.

LOCKER ROOMS/DRESSING ROOMS

Backstage at Verizon Center are 10 dressing rooms, including the Wizards, Capitals, Mystics and Hoyas team locker rooms, and NBA/NHL visitor's and official's locker rooms. The Wizards and Capitals locker rooms include a training room, steam room, hydrotherapy pool, team lounge and weight room.

Kettler Capitals Iceplex

CAPITALS ICEPLEX

The Washington Capitals ushered in a new era for the franchise in 2006 with the opening of Kettler Capitals Iceplex, a community ice rink in Arlington, Va., that serves as the Capitals' training facility and home to the team's administrative offices. The project, a joint venture between the Washington Capitals and Arlington County, is located on the eighth level of the parking garage attached to the Ballston Common Mall.

The 137,000-square-foot facility includes two NHL-size ice rinks with seating for approximately 1,200, office space, two pro shops, a snack bar, media facilities and additional space for special events. The 20,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art training center for the Capitals features a large weight and fitness room, extensive athletic-training and medical facilities, spacious locker-room and lounge areas, a theater-style classroom and a high-tech video room.

Kettler Capitals Iceplex will host Capitals training camp for the fifth year in 2011. It has also played host to five Capitals summer development camps and the unveiling of the team's new logos and jerseys in 2007.

The structure was built atop the existing seven-story public parking garage at the corner of North Glebe Road and North Randolph Street in the heart of Ballston. The $42.8 million project, designed by Architecture Inc. of Reston, Va., included the addition of an eighth level of parking to the garage. Kettler Capitals Iceplex is the only rink in the United States built eight or more stories above street level.

The facility is the first indoor ice rink inside the Capitol Beltway in Virginia and just the second facility of its kind anywhere inside the Beltway (Ft. DuPont Ice Rink in D.C. is the other). With the Orange Line reaching the Ballston Metro Station nearby, Kettler Capitals Iceplex is the only community rink located on the Metrorail system.

The two ice sheets offer an estimated 12,000 hours of ice time per year for use by youth, high school and college hockey teams, figure skating, synchronized skating, recreational skating, learn-to-skate programs and hockey and broomball. At least 500 hours of ice time are donated by the Capitals to Arlington County to offer the economically disadvantaged and physically and mentally challenged members of the community an opportunity to use the facility.

George McPhee

Vice President and General Manager

In 14 years as vice president and general manager of the Washington Capitals, George McPhee has overseen the club's development with an emphasis on scouting, drafting, coaching and building from within. McPhee has provided solid direction for the Capitals franchise by instituting a team-first philosophy that has extended from his hockey operations staff to the players on the ice. McPhee has led a Capitals organization that has grown from a lottery team to Southeast Division champions in each of the last four seasons and the Presidents' Trophy winners in 2009-10.

During the 2010-11 season, the Capitals finished as the top seed in the Eastern Conference in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history. Their 107 points tied for the third-highest total in team history and marked the third straight season that the Capitals have reached the 100-point plateau. In addition, Washington has finished ranked in the top three in home record in each of the past three seasons, pacing the league with a 30-5-6 record last year and finishing third in 2008-09 (29-9-3). Their 84 wins at home in the last three seasons are tied with San Jose for most in the NHL during that span.

McPhee was very active this past offseason, adding several veterans to the Capitals lineup through trades and free agency including, Troy Brouwer, Roman Hamrlik, Joel Ward, Jeff Halpern and Tomas Vokoun.

Named the fifth general manager in team history June 9, 1997, McPhee found immediate success with the Capitals while engineering the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Finals in his first season (1997-98). Under his leadership the team has claimed six Southeast Division championships (1999-00, 2000-01, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10 and 2010-11), seven 40-or-more win seasons (1997-98, 1999-00, 2000-01, 2007-08, 2008-09, 2009-10 and 2010-11) and set a club record for wins and points (2009-10).

In efforts to further cultivate the Capitals as a competitive and progressive franchise, McPhee has stressed the growth of the Washington organization through scouting, coaching, amateur drafts, free agency, trades and minor-league development. These focus points have resulted in 16 first-round draft picks during the last nine years, the most of any NHL team, including the No. 1 overall pick in 2004, Alex Ovechkin, the league's first repeat MVP in more than a decade. Capitals prospects have enjoyed tremendous success as well, leading the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League to the 2006, 2009 and 2010 Calder Cup championships and four appearances in the Calder Cup finals in a five-year span.

Prior to joining the Capitals, McPhee spent five seasons as the vice president and director of hockey operations as well as alternate governor for the Vancouver Canucks, assisting then general manager Pat Quinn with all hockey-related matters. In his time with the Canucks, the team enjoyed four trips to the playoffs, a division championship and a trip to the 1994 Stanley Cup Finals.

McPhee began his playing career in his hometown of Guelph, Ont., with the Ontario Junior Hockey League's Guelph Platers, leading them to the 1978 Centennial Cup, Canada's Tier II championship. Following his stint with the Platers, McPhee attended Bowling Green State University of the Central Collegiate Hockey Association, where he became one of college hockey's most decorated players. Bruce Boudreau

Head Coach

Bruce Boudreau, the 2007-08 Jack Adams Award winner as the NHL's coach of the year and a member of the AHL Hall of Fame, is in his fifth season as Washington Capitals head coach and has led the team to the Southeast Division championships in each of his first four seasons.

Boudreau, 56, became the 14th head coach in Washington Capitals history when he was named to the position on an interim basis, Nov. 22, 2007, and had the interim tag removed Dec. 26, 2007. He has a 189-79-39 record with Washington.

Boudreau's Capitals barely trail San Jose (190-79-38) for the best record in the NHL since he was hired. He recorded more wins (184) in his first 300 NHL games than any coach in NHL history and his .679 career winning percentage is the best of any coach in league history with at least 250 games of experience.

In addition, Washington has finished ranked in the top three in home record in each of the past three seasons. Their 84 wins at home in the last three years are tied with San Jose for most in the NHL during that span.

Boudreau led the Capitals on a remarkable comeback from 30th in the NHL when he took over on Thanksgiving Day to the Southeast Division championship in 2007-08, his first season. His record of 37-17-7 would have been good for a 109-point pace in the course of a full season. The Capitals posted 17 come-from-behind victories under Boudreau and finished 20-6-7 in games decided by one goal. Boudreau was the first coach in NHL history to lead his team from 14th place at midseason to a playoff berth.

Boudreau became the second Capitals head coach to win the Jack Adams Award (Bryan Murray, 1984) and the first coach since Bill Barber in 2001 to win the Jack Adams award after taking over a team in midseason.

In 2008-09, Boudreau guided his team to what was the best record in franchise history and a successful defense of the Southeast Division title, as well as Washington's first playoff series victory since 1998. His team ranked second in the NHL on the power play (25.2%) and third in goals per game (3.27) and he coached the repeat Hart Trophy winner (Alex Ovechkin) and two members of the NHL First All-Star Team (Ovechkin and Mike Green).

Boudreau's 2009-10 Capitals team won the Presidents' Trophy and became the first team outside of the Original Six to accumulate at least 120 points in a season. The Capitals set franchise records in wins (54) and points (121) while leading the NHL in scoring (3.82) and power play (25.2%) for the first time. Boudreau's team had seven 20-plus goal scorers, the NHL leader in plus/minus (Jeff Schultz, +50) and two repeat NHL First All-Star Team selections (Ovechkin and Green).

Boudreau has coached championship teams in the American Hockey League (AHL) and the ECHL and was in his third year as the head coach of the Hershey Bears, Washington's AHL affiliate, when he was promoted to D.C. He led the Bears to the Eastern Conference championship and the Calder Cup finals in each of his two full seasons in Hershey, winning the Calder Cup in 2006. Boudreau compiled a 103-45-11-16 record with the Bears (a .666 winning percentage), including an AHL-best 51-17-6-6 record (.713) in 2006-07.

Boudreau spent nine seasons as an AHL head coach, having compiled a 340-216-56-43 career record. He spent four years with the Manchester Monarchs and two years with the Lowell Lock Monsters before joining the Bears. Before ascending to the AHL, he was the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Mississippi Sea Wolves (ECHL), where he won the 1999 Kelly Cup championship.

Bruce Boudreau led the Capitals to the top seed in the Eastern Conference in back-to-back seasons for the first time in franchise history.

Caps in the Community

The Washington Capitals strive for success both on and off the ice. As a professional sports franchise with deep roots in and around the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area, the Capitals are committed to making a difference in the local community. It is our goal not only to build an excellent team with positive role models for young people, but also to create and maintain community programs that encourage participation in hockey, serve to educate today's youth and assist those in need.

It is this philosophy that led the franchise to establish Caps Care, the branch of the organization that manages community involvement. Recognizing the community as our most important asset, Caps Care creates programs that are designed to give back to the very community that has supported our team for so many years.

Throughout the year Capitals players, coaches and their families, along with our alumni, staff and mascot, dedicate themselves to making a difference in the lives of the people they encounter. Through a diverse array of causes like education, fundraising, supporting local youth hockey groups, hosting community drives or simply spreading good cheer, the Capitals are committed to being a positive influence and contributor in our community.

Community Programs

The Washington Capitals take part in numerous programs throughout the year that benefit the local community.

Caps@School: The Washington Capitals launched Caps@School during the 2009-10 season and brought the excitement of Caps Hockey to local classrooms in Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. Caps@School is a free, online curriculum-enhancing teaching tool for fourth, fifth and sixth-grade classes.

In 2010-11, the number of educators who participated in Caps@School more than doubled from the first year of the program. Nearly 900 elementary school educators signed-up at CapsAtSchool.com to access resources that combined the sport of hockey and Washington Capitals players to teach math, language, art, health and physical education. This unique program offered engaging, classroom-ready lesson plans featuring Nicklas Backstrom, Mike Green and Alex Ovechkin that captured the attention of students. Furthermore, Caps@School allowed classes that completed lesson plans the opportunity to win Caps prizes. Each month from October through March, at least one eligible class won a Chipotle burrito party with autographed memorabilia delivered to their classroom by either a player or team mascot Slapshot. Caps@School also offered educational stories, Caps player quick facts and motivational posters that educators could utilize in their classrooms.

Last season more than 69,000 students from public, private and charter schools were reached through Caps@School, more than double the number of students the program reached during its first year.

Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C., teachers can enroll their classes for FREE and start to download lesson plans immediately at the Caps@School website at http://www.capsatschool.com/.

Hockey School: The Washington Capitals have hosted more than 50 clinics and reached more than 7,500 students in the D.C. area through the team's Hockey School program since its inception in 2007. Hockey School is a free program, designed to be both instructional and interactive, with the goal of exposing students to floor hockey and teaching proper technique. Each Hockey School visit consists of an interactive floor hockey clinic focusing on puckhandling, passing and shooting.

WASHINGTON CAPITALS caps care

This season Caps coaches, players and alumni, Slapshot and team representatives will host Hockey School sessions between September and May for groups of 100 to 150 fifth through eighth graders.

Each student who participates in Hockey School will receive the following:

- An autographed player card signed by one of the Washington Capitals
- A hockey 101 booklet that outlines the rules of street hockey and ice hockey
- One coupon for a free open skate session at a local participating rink
- One coupon for a free learn to skate or learn to play introductory class at a local rink
- A Hockey School squishy puck

In addition, each school will receive an official Capitals Hockey School banner and schools in need of street hockey equipment will receive a free set of equipment.

Schools serving fifth through eighth-grade students within a 30-mile radius of either Kettler Capitals Iceplex or Verizon Center are eligible to sign up for Hockey School online at WashingtonCaps.com. Schools are chosen on a first-come, first-served basis and must select one of the predetermined dates available when signing up.

Most Valuable Kids

The Washington Capitals have teamed up with Most Valuable Kids, Inc., to provide a unique opportunity for Caps season-ticket holders to donate unused game tickets to underserved children, recuperating soldiers and active military and their families in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. Tickets that would otherwise go unused are redistributed by Most Valuable Kids to either injured soldiers or active military and their families; or to boys and girls, 18 and younger, through various local nonprofit organizations. Most Valuable Kids' mission is to provide an unparalleled reward system for local underprivileged children and children's organizations that show exemplary behavior, spirit, and community service. In offering children the opportunity to come face to face with athletic and entertainment role models, Most Valuable Kids' program fosters the development of self-esteem and a deeper understanding of the benefits of hard work and perseverance during adolescent and teenage years. For more information on Most Valuable Kids go to www.mostvaluablekids.org.

Community Drives

Community drives are another way that the Capitals partner with fans who want to get involved in helping the local community. By collecting canned food, toys or even by allowing fans the opportunity to donate blood, the team places high priority on making the D.C. area a better place and helping those who are in need.

Canned Food Drive presented by Tires Plus and Bridgestone: Every year the Washington Capitals hold a food drive to collect canned foods and other nonperishable food items to benefit the Capital Area Food Bank. The Capital Area Food Bank is the largest public nonprofit food and nutrition education resource in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. Last year, the Capital Area Food Bank distributed 30 million pounds of food, including 10.8 million pounds of fresh produce, to more than 478 million people through a network of more than 700 nonprofit partners. The Capital Area Food Bank has served the National Capital region for 31 years.

In 2010 the Capitals teamed up with Tires Plus, Bridgestone, Comcast SportsNet, Mix 107.3 and the Edge 105.9 and collected more than one ton of food and nearly $1,000 for the Capital Area Food Bank. Tires Plus and Bridgestone made an additional $7,500 donation to the food bank. Capitals players' wives and girlfriends Karie Erskine, Rachel Fehr, Kim Hendricks, Mackenzie Keeley and Diondra Steckel greeted fans at the F Street entrance along with volunteers from the Capital Area Food Bank. Fans who provided nonperishable food or monetary donations received a poster featuring Caps star center and canned food drive spokesman Nicklas Backstrom. Through the canned food drive the Caps were able to provide more than 25,000 meals to those in need in the D.C. area.

Food drive spokesman Backstrom along with Caps teammates Karl Alzner, John Carlson, Mike Green, Braden Holtby and D.J. King; Mix 107.3's Chilli Amar; and Comcast SportsNet's Jill Sorenson also participated in The Salvation Army's Grate Patrol program in 2010. The group, joined by Major Steve Morris from the National Capital Area Command for The Salvation Army, delivered sandwiches, beef stew, bread, hot chocolate, water and cookies to the homeless. This was the second consecutive year that Backstrom and Amar delivered meals through the Grate Patrol program.

The Grate Patrol program started in 1985 and operates 365 days a year with service to more than 1,000 individuals each month. The Grate Patrol serves between 100 to 120 individuals per night and serves more than 33,000 meals annually. Originally the program offered meals alone, but today an outreach coordinator helps the homeless get back on their feet.

Toy Drive presented by GEICO

The holiday season is a time for giving and the Washington Capitals want to do their part in bringing a smile to the face of every child. The Capitals partnered with the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves for their 11th annual Toys for Tots Toy Drive presented by GEICO in 2010. The Capitals, the Elliot in the Morning Show and Comcast SportsNet worked together to fill a 17-foot JK Moving and Storage Inc. truck with toys for disadvantaged children throughout the D.C. area. Caps players' wives Karie Erskine, Rachel Fehr and Kim Hendricks joined U.S. Marines outside of Verizon Center's main entrance to collect toys and monetary donations. Every fan who donated a new, unwrapped toy received a commemorative Caps poster featuring toy drive spokesman Brooks Laich. More than $5,000 in monetary donations was also collected last year for the Toys for Tots Foundation at the Toy Drive.

To kick off the toy drive campaign, spokesman Laich and his girlfriend – along with Alan May from Comcast SportsNet, Elliot Segal from the Elliot in the Morning show, the GEICO Gecko, Slapshot and several U.S. Marines – shopped for the U.S. Marine Corps Toys for Tots Foundation. Washington Capitals Charities donated more than $10,000 that the shoppers spent on nearly 400 toys which were distributed as holiday gifts to children in need in the Washington, D.C., area.

Inova Blood Drive: The Washington Capitals and Inova Blood Donor Services hosted two blood drives during the 2010-11 season. The Caps and Inova collected 1,115 units of blood – 540 units in October and 575 units in March. More than 1,200 fans donated blood at these drives and helped make the Caps Inova Blood Drive in March the most successful blood donation campaign hosted by a sports team in the Washington, D.C., area.

Each donor at the October drive received a Brooks Laich jersey T-shirt and bobblehead while each donor at the March drive received a Semyon Varlamov jersey T-shirt and bobblehead.

One blood donation can save up to three lives, so the more than 1,100 units of blood collected by the Capitals and Inova Blood Donor Services can help 3,345 local patients.

Signature Events

Children's National Medical Center Visit: The Capitals have been visiting Children's National Medical Center for more than 20 years. The trip to Children's has become an annual tradition, which the players, coaches and owners look forward to each season. The players spend time playing video games, making arts and crafts, signing autographs and taking pictures with patients in the hospital's atrium. They then divide into smaller groups and visit patients in various units throughout the hospital.

NHL Platforms

Hockey Fights Cancer

The Washington Capitals support the NHL's Hockey Fights Cancer initiative. Hockey Fights Cancer is a component of the NHL's "Biggest Assist Happens off the Ice" campaign, the League's long-standing tradition of addressing important social issues in North America and around the world.

Hockey Fights Cancer is a joint initiative founded in December 1998 by the NHL and the Players' Association to raise money and awareness for national and local organizations involved in cancer care and research. It is supported by NHL Member Clubs, NHL Alumni, the NHL Officials' Association, Professional Hockey Trainers and Equipment Managers, corporate marketing partners, broadcast partners and fans throughout North America. To date more than $11 million has been raised to support national and local cancer research institutions, Children's Hospitals, player charities and local cancer organizations.

Caps in the Community

The Caps focused on blood cancers during the team's 2010 Hockey Fights Cancer Month initiatives. The Washington Capitals raised more than $35,000 for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's (LLS) National Capital Area Chapter through its Hockey Fights Cancer Night during the game on Oct. 23. The club hosted an on-ice ceremony before that same game, honoring 30 Caps fans who had battled, beaten, helped treat or been personally touched by leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's Disease or myeloma.

The mission of LLS, the world's largest voluntary health agency dedicated to blood cancer, is to cure leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkin's disease and myeloma, and improve the quality of life of patients and their families. LLS funds lifesaving blood cancer research around the world and provides free information and support services. More than 2,500 patients and families are served by The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's National Capital Area Chapter each year.

Hockey is for Everyone

The NHL's Hockey is for Everyone initiative provides support and unique programming to nonprofit youth hockey organizations across North America that are committed to offering children of all backgrounds opportunities to play hockey. The initiative is supported by NHL member clubs, players, NHL alumni and fans. To date, Hockey is for Everyone has exposed close to 45,000 boys and girls to unique hockey experiences.

The Hockey is for Everyone initiative embraces three specific disciplines of youth hockey: diverse hockey, special hockey and disabled hockey. The adult hockey component of the initiative exclusively supports two worthy programs, the U.S. National Amputee Hockey Team and the USA Warriors Hockey Team.

To celebrate this initiative, the National Hockey League hosts the annual Hockey is for Everyone Month in February. The league-wide initiative includes numerous activities to promote the diversity of the game that involve our clubs, players, alumni, fans, and grass-roots diversity programs, all with the goal of raising awareness and celebrating the growth of the game.

The Washington Capitals hosted Hockey Fights Cancer Night during the Caps game on Feb. 8 and featured youth players from Fort Dupont's Kids on Ice program as the Caps Flag Tunnel Kids and the Reston Raiders Under-16 Girls as the Ice Crew. During the intermission there was a shootout featuring players from Special Hockey Washington with members of the Washington IceDogs, NOVA Cool Cats, Baltimore Saints and Montgomery Cheetahs participating. Members of the Fort Dupont Cannons participated in the NHL Official's Association Zebras Care program before the game and watched the game from the Green's Gang and Ovi's Crazy 8s sections. The Catholic University of America Hockey team sold programs to fundraise and the Montgomery Youth Hockey Association (MYHA) Squirts played a hockey game at Verizon Center before the Capitals took the ice later that evening.

The Caps also teamed up with Dreams for Kids (DFK) to host Extreme Recess Hockey on Feb. 11 at Kettler Capitals Iceplex as part of Hockey is for Everyone Month. Washington Capitals forwards Matt Bradley and David Steckel, defenseman Tom Poti, head coach Bruce Boudreau and assistant coach Bob Woods skated with more than 60 children with physical and developmental disabilities following a Capitals practice. Many participants took the ice for the first time as the Caps players helped them get acclimated to the ice while working with them on puck-handling, passing and shooting. The Caps provided T-shirts, Winter Classic programs and lunch for all of the participants and volunteers while Bradley, Poti and Steckel signed autographs for all of the participants. Fundraisers

Caps Care Casino Night and Auction: Nearly 500 fans helped the Washington Capitals raise $304,400 for charity at the second Caps Care Casino Night and Auction on Jan. 9, 2011, at the Hilton Alexandria Mark Center in Alexandria, Va. A majority of the money raised benefited Washington Capitals Charities, while $25,000 was donated to The Chris Walsh Cancer Survivorship Fund at Virginia Hospital Center, the charity of choice of the Capitals players' wives. Last year the event raised $287,721 for a total of $592,121 raised for charity in two years.

Caps in the Community

A special reception was held for VIP ticketholders who mingled with the entire team along with coaches and owners. Afterwards the players entered the gaming area, which featured blackjack, craps, roulette, Texas hold 'em and slot machines. There were instructional tables along with video game stations – Wii bowling and Rock Band – in the foyer for everyone to enjoy. The participants were treated to complimentary food – lamb pita, shrimp and boursin filo bundle, quail, Maryland crab cake sliders, kobe beef sliders, cubano sliders, a sushi bar, a sate bar and a liquid nitrogen ice cream bar – along with beer, wine and signature cocktails during the event.

There were three silent auctions where participants were able to bid on autographed sports memorabilia and Capitals' game-used equipment, a live auction with one-of-a-kind experiences with Capitals players, coaches and owners and two raffles – one that attendees could buy tickets for and another that guests could enter with the money they won from the casino games.

Washington Capitals Charities would like to thank all of its 2011 Caps Care Casino Night and Auction sponsors who helped make the night a success: The Leonsis Foundation, Harrah's Resort Atlantic City, Accenture, SKYDEX, American Service Center and Mercedes-Benz of Alexandria, Capital One Bank, GEICO, Sidera Networks, Jeong and Cindy Kim, Sentrillion, SMI Sign Systems, Inc. and Show Biz Productions, LLC.

The third-annual Caps Care Casino Night and Auction will take place on Friday, Feb. 10, 2011.

Hockey Fights Cancer Jersey Auction: Since 2008 the Washington Capitals have hosted a jersey auction as part of the NHL's Hockey Fights Cancer Month initiative. The Capitals hosted its Hockey Fights Cancer Jersey Auction during the game on Oct. 23, 2010, and raised $35,075 for The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's (LLS) National Capital Area Chapter. The jerseys were worn during pregame warmups and featured Hockey Fights Cancer patches on the front with the players' names and numbers stitched in grey on the back. The red and grey jerseys represented the colors in the LLS logo.

Fourteen jerseys went for $1,000 or more, with Alex Ovechkin's jersey the top seller at $1,800. Other top bid recipients were jerseys worn and autographed by Nicklas Backstrom, Matt Bradley, John Carlson, Jason Chimera, Mike Green, D.J. King, Mike Knuble, Brooks Laich, Mathieu Perreault, Tom Poti, Jeff Schultz, Alexander Semin and Semyon Varlamov. There was also a special "Rock the Red" guitar donated by Paul Reed Smith and autographed by the entire Caps team that was auctioned off for $7,000.

Look for the 2011 Hockey Fights Cancer Jersey Auction this season at the Caps game against the Detroit Red Wings on Oct. 22.

Holiday Puck Surprises (Fall/Spring): Fall and spring are both made just a little bit sweeter thanks to the Capitals "Puck Surprises" hosted at Verizon Center. The puck surprises give fans an opportunity to purchase pucks autographed by their favorite players, wrapped with the colors and candy treats of the season. The lucky fans who select unsigned pucks get to meet a Caps player and have them signed in person. During the 2010-11 season the puck surprises raised more than $36,000 for Capitals Charities.

The 2011 fall puck surprise will be held at the game against the Tampa Bay Lightning on Oct. 10 and the 2012 spring puck surprise will be held at the game against the Montreal Canadiens on March 31.

Courage Caps: For the fourth year in a row the Washington Capitals reminded everyone what true courage is and called Caps fans to action through Courage Caps. Through this initiative, the Capitals raised nearly $50,000 for Our Military Kids.

Camouflage Courage Caps and T-Shirts were sold for $20 at Capitals home games, online at WashingtonCaps.com and at the team stores at Kettler Capitals Iceplex and Verizon Center. There were also a limited number of autographed Courage Caps and T-Shirts available. For $50, fans were able to purchase a "Three Stars" Courage Cap or T-Shirt signed by Nicklas Backstrom, Mike Green, Mike Knuble or Alex Ovechkin; for $35, fans could purchase a hat or T-shirt signed by any other individual Capitals player.

Courage Caps allowed the Capitals to raise $46,838 for Our Military Kids, a nonprofit organization that supports National Guard and Military Reserve families – one child at a time. Our Military Kids provides grants to the children of deployed National Guard and Military Reserve personnel, as well as children of all Wounded Warriors. The grants pay for participation in activities such as sports, fine arts and tutoring, which nurture and sustain the children while a parent is overseas serving our country. Our Military Kids grants are made to honor the sacrifices military families make and to ensure the children have access to activities and support that help them better cope with challenges arising during a parent's deployment or recovery.

This season Courage Caps will be available starting at the game against the New Jersey Devils, they day after Veterans Day, on Nov. 12.

Players' Wives Gift Basket Auction: In a rare opportunity that gives fans a glimpse into the lives of their favorite players, the Caps wives and girlfriends team up with Capitals Charities for their annual gift basket auction. The baskets, decorated and put together by the wives and girlfriends, are decked out with some of the players' favorite things – from movies to candy bars. In 2010 the auction raised nearly $25,000 for Washington Capitals Charities.

This year's gift basket auction will take place at the game against the Nashville Predators on Dec. 20.

Pick-A-Stick: On one special gameday each season, the Capitals give fans the opportunity to support Capitals Charities and Pick-A-Stick. Each of the numerous hockey sticks up for grabs, with the exception of a select few, is signed by a member of the team. The lucky fans that chose the unsigned sticks get the opportunity to meet a Caps player and get their brand-new sticks signed in person. The 2011 Pick-A-Stick raised $18,395 for Capitals Charities.

The 2012 pick-a-stick will take place at the game against the Carolina Hurricanes on Jan. 15.

Mystery Mini-Helmets: The Washington Capitals raised $17,920 for Washington Capitals Charities through the team's first Mystery Mini-Helmets fundraiser, taking place during the 2011 playoffs. The fundraiser featured Capitals replica mini-helmets, autographed by various Capitals players and packaged in red bags with tissue paper so fans did not know whose autograph they received until after they had made their purchase. Five of the mini-helmets were not signed, and the fans who selected those got to meet head coach Bruce Boudreau after the game against Tampa Bay on May 1. The Capitals look forward to making Mystery Mini-Helmets an annual playoff fundraiser.

Beard-a-thon: Since 2009 more than 3,000 Caps fans have participated in the team's Beard-a-thon fundraiser. Beard-a-thon encourages fans to grow a beard themselves or make a financial donation in support of a Capitals player or a fan who elected to grow a playoff beard. Fans were also able to build virtual beards for themselves on the Beard-a-thon website. In 2011 the Capitals helped raise more than $34,000 for Fort Dupont Ice Arena, as all proceeds benefitted the local rink. Since the start of the program, Beard-a-thon has raised nearly $120,000 for Washington Capitals Charities and Fort Dupont Ice Arena.

Fort Dupont is the only public indoor ice arena located in Washington, D.C., and the only skating facility in the area that provides free or subsidized skating programs to children. Its Kids On Ice program provides free figure skating, hockey and speed skating lessons to economically disadvantaged children who might not otherwise have the opportunity to learn these sports. Friends of Fort Dupont Ice Arena partners with public and private schools, summer camps, churches and local community organizations to promote and deliver its programs to more than 7,000 children per year.

Programs

Serve DC Partnership: For the second-straight year, Washington Capitals Charities partnered with Serve DC – The Mayor's Office of Volunteerism, to "adopt" a local school. During the 2010-11 season, Capitals Charities adopted Powell Elementary School, a Title I D.C. Public School located in Ward 4 that serves children in preschool through fourth grade.

To kick off the partnership, Washington Capitals Charities participated in the annual D.C. Public Schools Beatification Day in August. The Capitals hosted a service project headlined by defenseman Mike Green that featured team mascot Slapshot and more than 125 Caps fans at Powell Elementary School in Northwest Washington. The Caps and volunteers helped spruce up the school for the upcoming school year by painting, landscaping, cleaning, creating and hanging signs, assisting teachers with organizing classrooms and assembling goody bags for students.

Throughout the course of the season, Washington Capitals Charities and the Capitals grew their relationship with Powell. More than $10,000 was donated to Powell as a portion of the team's Fall Puck Surprise and Pick-A-Stick fundraisers was earmarked for the elementary school. Powell used the money for computers and books for its students.

The Capitals also visited the school several times during the school year. In February, Caps defenseman John Erskine, left wing Boyd Gordon and assistant coach Bob Woods brought Hockey School to Powell Elementary. The Capitals led a floor hockey clinic for nearly 100 second through fourth-grade students, focusing on puck-handling, passing and shooting. The Caps players also answered questions and had the students participate in a shootout. The street hockey equipment used during the event was donated by the Capitals to the school.

Later in February, Green was back at Powell for his second visit, this time with Caps alumnus Alan May and the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) for a garden design session. The Capitals and the USDA teamed up to bring a garden to Powell Elementary School through the USDA's People's Garden initiative. Green, May and USDA landscape architects assisted the students in designing the garden and deciding what plants should be included in it. Parents, along with students and teachers from the first, second, third and fourth grades took part in the assembly with Green and May while the USDA provided volunteers to visit the younger students and get their input for the garden. The students worked in groups drawing their ideal gardens. Green, May and the USDA landscape architects went from table-to-table adding their touches to the garden designs. After they had finished their creations, the students shared their designs with their classmates. The USDA then collected the students', teachers' and parents' drawings to come up with a design for the garden.

A month later, Green, May and representatives from the United States Department of Agriculture returned to Powell to present the garden design to the students. During the school-wide assembly, the students, teachers and parents learned how the USDA was able to incorporate their many ideas into one garden plan.

Also in March, the Capitals were asked to help organize a street hockey clinic at The White House as part of the First Lady's Let's Move! initiative. Third and fourth-grade students from Powell Elementary School were invited to join Green, along with First Lady Michelle Obama, NHL commissioner Gary Bettman, USA Hockey executive director Dave Ogrean and the Chicago Blackhawks on The White House grounds. The clinic helped launch the collaboration between Mrs. Obama's Let's Move! initiative, the NHL and USA Hockey to encourage American children to lead active and healthy lives. The NHL built a rink on the driveway of the South Lawn that was divided into four interactive sections: a warm up area where students did exercises, a stickhandle challenge area, a hardest shot station and an area for scrimmaging. The students were divided into groups and participated in each area.

During the month of May, Powell's principal, Janeece Docal, arranged for all of the school's students to skate at Kettler Capitals Iceplex. Docal made use of all the free skating vouchers provided to Powell in the Hockey 101 booklets the students received from the Capitals Hockey School, presented by Capital One Bank, program. Each Wednesday afternoon during the month of May, several Powell classes attended the open skate at Kettler Capitals Iceplex. This allowed all of the students – many who had never been on ice skates before – the chance to skate free of charge.

To conclude the partnership, the Capitals and USDA broke ground on a habitat garden at Powell Elementary School in June. More than 50 Caps fans and USDA volunteers joined Caps defenseman Jeff Schultz and his girlfriend Mackenzie Keeley at Powell on June 9 to lay the groundwork for a habitat garden on the school's grounds. The volunteers worked on projects including building a bat house and a shed to store the gardening tools, painting animal cutouts that would be placed throughout the garden, tilling the soil, creating a woodchip path, planting, mulching, watering and installing birdfeeders. Throughout the course of the day, all of the preschool through fourth-grade classes came outside to learn about the garden, help the volunteers and do an arts and crafts project.

A week later more than 30 Caps fans, staff and USDA volunteers completed the habitat garden at Powell Elementary. The habitat garden was built to attract local species of birds, butterflies and beneficial insects that the students can learn about throughout the course of the school year. To complete the project, volunteers tilled the soil with equipment donated by The Home Depot, planted and labeled various flowers and plants, hung a chalkboard for the outdoor classroom and finished building a shed for the school to store gardening tools. Animal cutouts were placed on stakes and planted into the ground to mark the different parts of the habitat such as the native bee garden, monarch watch garden and hummingbird garden.

Caps in the Community

Students also came outside during their recess to help plant and water their new garden. Once the project was finished, both the Caps and the USDA donated the gardening tools used during the build to Powell Elementary School so that the students and teachers could work year-round to maintain the garden.

Salvation Army Angel Trees: Inspired by Capitals defenseman Mike Green, who has adopted families during the holidays for the past four seasons, Washington Capitals Charities teamed up with The Salvation Army's Angel Tree Program for the second-consecutive year. Through Angel Tree, the Capitals adopted 25 D.C.-area families for the holidays, providing clothing, books and toys for 60 children. Washington Capitals Charities received wish lists and clothing sizes for the kids and several of the Caps players' wives and girlfriends spent the day shopping for these families. They filled 60 shopping carts at Target with clothes and accessories, bikes, books, toys, electronics and games, and also purchased Target and Safeway gift cards for the parents and guardians. The wives and girlfriends then separated and labeled all of the gifts and everything was delivered to the families by The Salvation Army on Christmas Day.

The adopted Angel Tree families were invited to a skating and pizza party hosted by Washington Capitals Charities at Kettler Capitals Iceplex. This gave the players and their wives and girlfriends who shopped for the families the chance to meet them in person. The players skated with the families, giving pointers, as many of the children had never been on skates before.

The success of The Salvation Army's Angel Tree Program depends on volunteers who agree to adopt and purchase gifts for an angel. For many of the families who turn to The Salvation Army for help, the toys and clothes they receive through the Angel Tree Program are the only gifts their children will have to open on Christmas morning. More than 25,000 individuals received emergency holiday assistance through the Angel Tree Program throughout the National Capital Area.

Servathon: For the past two seasons Washington Capitals Charities has hosted a Greater DC Cares Servathon Project at Fort Dupont Ice Arena in Washington, D.C. Servathon is one of the largest days of service in the D.C. area and is Greater DC Cares' largest fundraiser. In 2011 more than 8,000 community and corporate volunteers participated in nearly 100 service projects throughout the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia.

At Fort Dupont, 100 Caps fans donated their time to work alongside Capitals' wives and girlfriends. Volunteers worked on indoor projects that included waxing the boards, cleaning the glass, painting the lobby and hallway behind the bleachers, cleaning hockey equipment, putting together goals and organizing hockey equipment, and outdoor projects that included washing windows, weeding and mulching tree boxes and flower beds, raking leaves and sweeping the sidewalks and parking lot.

With 22 years of experience, Greater DC Cares is the leading and largest nonprofit coordinator of volunteerism and service in the region. Greater DC Cares comprehensively mobilizes volunteers and strengthens nonprofits to better impact communities and the key issues in the Greater DC Region. Greater DC Cares works with a network of more than 800 nonprofits, 32,000 volunteers and a host of corporate and foundation partners working together to positively impact the region.

2010-11 Capitals Notes

Leading the way

The Capitals earned the top seed in the Eastern Conference for the second straight season for the first time in franchise history. In doing so, Washington also captured their fourth consecutive Southeast Division title. That streak of division championships is tied with San Jose for the longest active streak in the NHL. It is the longest streak in Capitals franchise history.

Century club

The Capitals finished the 2010-11 regular season with 107 points, tied for the third-highest total in franchise history. This marks the third straight season the Capitals have reached the 100-point plateau. The only other time Washington has recorded three consecutive 100-point seasons was from 1983-84 through 1985-86.

All about Ovi

Alex Ovechkin became the sixth-youngest player to reach 300 goals (25 years, 200 days) and the seventh-quickest player to reach 300 goals in terms of games played (473) when he tallied on April 4 in Toronto. In addition, Ovechkin's overtime tally on April 2 versus Buffalo was his third overtime game-winner of the season and the 10th of his NHL career. He has twice as many overtime game-winners as any other Capital; Peter Bondra and Kelly Miller each had five. Ovechkin's goal on April 2 was also his 30th of the season, marking the sixth consecutive season in which he has reached that plateau. The club record is nine straight 30-goal seasons, set by Mike Gartner. Ovechkin also recorded his 50th assist of the season on April 2 against the Sabres, marking the fourth time in six NHL seasons that he has achieved that milestone. Ovechkin is one of only seven players to start their NHL careers with six-straight seasons of 80 points or more.

Perennial postseasons

With their 5-4, shootout win on March 22 in Philadelphia, the Washington Capitals clinched their fourth straight playoff berth, marking the longest streak of playoff appearances in franchise history since their 14-straight postseason trips from the 1982-83 season through 1995-96.

Over the hill

With 48 wins last season, the Capitals captured their fourth consecutive 40-win campaign. It marked the first time in franchise history that Washington has won 40 or more games in four straight seasons.

SRO

Washington closed out the regular season home schedule with a 25-8-8 record and the second best home winning percentage in the NHL (.707). The Capitals also had the least amount of regulation losses at home and finished second, behind Vancouver (59), in points earned at home (58). Washington has finished ranked in the top three in home record in each of the past three seasons, pacing the league with a 30-5-6 record last year and finishing third in 2008-09 (29-9-3). Their 84 wins at home in the last three seasons are tied with San Jose for most in the NHL during that span. For the second consecutive year, the Capitals sold out all of their homes games and set a club record with 106 consecutive sellouts dating back to 2008-09 (including playoffs).

400

Jason Arnott tallied his 400th career NHL goal on April 2 versus the Buffalo Sabres to become just the 84th player in NHL history to score 400 goals and is one of only six active players who have tallied 400 goals or more. After his acquisition from the New Jersey Devils on Feb. 28, Arnott recorded seven points (four goals, three assists) in 11 regular-season games with the Capitals.

Road warriors

The Capitals, who went 23-15-3 on the road this season, have won at least 20 road games for four consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history. The 23 road wins last season were the second-most in franchise history, just one behind the 2009-10 season's total of 24. The Caps allowed 97 goals (2.37 p/g) on the road, which was tied for second in the NHL. Washington went 17-7-2 in its last 26 road games and allowed just 52 goals in those 26 contests (2.00 per game). In 18 of their last 26 road games, the Caps allowed two or fewer goals a game.

2010-11 Capitals Notes

Near the top

The Capitals were near the top of the league in several statistical categories:

- Team, Goals Against: The Caps' 2.33 goals-against per game was ranked fourth in the NHL. They allowed 197 goals, fourth-best in the league and the third-least in franchise history
- Team, Face-offs: Washington finished sixth in the league in faceoffs, winning 51.6% of their draws
- Washington won 26 one-goal games to rank second in the NHL (Anaheim, 28).
- Goaltender, Rookies: Michal Neuvirth finished third amongst rookie goaltenders in wins (27) and goals-against average (2.45)
- Player, Shots: Alex Ovechkin became the first player in NHL history to lead the league in shots (367) in six consecutive seasons (since the stat was first kept in 1967-68)

Killing fields

The Capitals finished the season tied for second in the league in penalty killing (85.6%). It also marked their fifth-best penalty killing percentage in franchise history. Washington has led the NHL in penalty killing three times in their team history, most recently in 1997-98 (89.2%).

In the record books

Capitals head coach Bruce Boudreau recorded more wins (184) in his first 300 NHL games than any coach in NHL history, passing Mike Keenan's 183 victories. In addition, Boudreau's .679 career winning percentage is the best of any coach in NHL history with at least 250 games of experience.

Rookie Record

Caps goaltender Michal Neuvirth finished with 27 wins to break Bob Mason's franchise record for victories by a rookie goaltender with 20, set during the 1986-87 season. Neuvirth's four shutouts also tied the rookie record set by Jim Carey (1994-95). In addition, Neuvirth became the first Capitals goaltender to post 10 wins in the team's first 16 games and became the last goaltender in the NHL last season to allow more than four goals in a game (36th game).

Marching on

Washington posted a record of 12-2-1 in March, the best month of March in franchise history. The Capitals fell one win and one point shy of the franchise records for one month in those categories. The Caps scored 43 goals (2.87 G/G), allowed 27 (1.80 GA/G) and killed off 50 of their 55 penalties (91%) during the month.

Young Gun

John Carlson matched a single-season franchise record for most points by a rookie defenseman with 37, a mark that stood for nearly three decades. Robert Picard notched 37 points as a rookie in 1977-78 and Greg Theberge matched it in his freshman campaign in 1981-82. Carlson finished his rookie year leading all NHL rookie defensemen in ice time (22:38), was ranked third in plus/minus (+21), fourth in points (37), third in assists (30) and tied for fourth in goals (7).

K street

Mike Knuble scored 24 goals last season, marking the eighth consecutive year in which he has scored 20 or more goals in a season. He is one of eight active players in the league to have scored at least 20 goals in eight straight seasons. Knuble's 24 tallies were also the third-most for all players aged 35 and older.

Working overtime

The Capitals set a single-season franchise mark with 25 overtime games in a season, besting the previous record of 24 set during the 2009-10 season. Washington finished 8-1 in their last nine games that went to overtime or the shootout.

2010-11 Capitals Notes

WhiteWashington
The Capitals recorded their eighth shutout of the season on March 26 at Montreal (2-0) to tie the franchise mark set during the 1983-84 campaign. The club record for most shutouts in a single season is nine, set in 1995-96.

Hat trick hero
Alexander Semin, who has seven career hat-tricks, became the first Capital with four three-goal games in a single season since Peter Bondra accomplished that feat during the 1995-96 season.

Success north of the border
The Capitals finished the season 11-2-2 against Canadian teams and 6-1-0 in Canada. Washington scored 50 goals (3.33 G/G) and allowed 30 goals (2.00 GA/G) in 15 games against Canadian teams last season.

Winter Classic
The Capitals participated in their first ever Winter Classic on Jan. 1 against the Pittsburgh Penguins – a 3-1 victory at Heinz Field. Eric Fehr led the Caps with two tallies while Mike Knuble added a goal and Semyon Varlamov made 32 saves before being named the first star of the game. With the win, Washington remained unbeaten against Pittsburgh on New Year's Day (4-0-0).

Triple play
For the first time in the Capitals' 36-year franchise history, three different goaltenders recorded 10 wins or more in the regular season. Michal Neuvirth led with 27 while Semyon Varlamov had 11 and Braden Holtby finished with 10. Washington is the first team in NHL history with three goaltenders aged 22 or younger (age prior to Feb. 1 of season in question) to record 10 or more wins in a season.

Never out of it
The Caps' .489 winning percentage when trailing first in a game was the top winning percentage in the NHL in that category. Washington finished with the most wins (15) when trailing after the first period, and won eight times (second in the NHL) when trailing after two periods of play.

Nine in a row
The Capitals' nine-game winning streak from 2/26 – 3/15 was their longest of the season and lengthiest since the franchise-record 14-game run from Jan. 13-Feb. 7, 2010.

Good omens
Washington finished 27-3-4 when scoring a power-play goal (14-0-2 when it scored one but did not allow one)...The Caps were 29-1-2 when leading after two periods and 11-4-4 when tied …Washington finished 39-0-3 when scoring at least three goals and 21-7-6 when being outshot by its opponent.

Retired Numbers

Retired Nov. 7, 1981

Yvon Labre's contributions to the success of the Washington Capitals extended well beyond the boundaries of the rink. A member of the inaugural 1974-75 Capitals, Labre was a rugged defenseman whose solid, physical play paced the early expansion team. Labre is notably remembered for scoring the Capitals' first goal at the Capital Centre Oct. 15, 1974, against Los Angeles. He finished fourth in team scoring during Washington's first season and recorded more than 20 assists in a season twice in his career. From 1976-78 Labre wore the "C" on his sweater, utilizing his leadership qualities to the fullest extent.

After retiring in 1981 Labre became an assistant coach before stepping into the role of color commentator for the team's broadcasts. In 1983 Labre became the Capitals' director of community relations and continued in that position until the start of the 1996-97 season, when he began a four-year stint as director of special programs.

From the moment he took to the ice in a Capitals uniform to his commitment in community programs and youth hockey, no one served as a better ambassador for hockey in the Washington area than Labre.

5 ROD LANGWAY

Retired Nov. 26, 1997

Known to many Capitals fans as the "Secretary of Defense," Rod Langway anchored the Washington defense for 11 seasons and more than 700 games. Dealt by Montreal to Washington in one of the biggest trades in franchise history, Langway brought instant respectability to the Capitals' squad. His arrival and dominating physical presence helped lead Washington to its first postseason appearance in 1982-83.

The taste of the Stanley Cup playoffs was only a sign of things to come. The Capitals made the playoffs during every season of Langway's tenure. Recognized as the best in the business, Langway captured back-to-back Norris Trophy honors in 1982-83 and 1983-84. The team recorded more than 100 points in three consecutive seasons, including a record 107-point, 50-win year in 1985-86.

A strong leader in the locker room, Langway captained the team for more than a decade and was truly one of hockey's all-time greats, evidenced by his induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2002.

32 DALE HUNTER

Retired March 11, 2000

Referred to by many as the "heart and soul" of the Washington Capitals, Dale Hunter was well respected for his dedication to the game. His 19 seasons in the NHL, 1,407 regular-season games and 186 playoff games serve as testimony to that dedication. At the time of his retirement following the 1998-99 season, only seven players in NHL history had appeared in more total games.

Hunter left the game having firmly etched his name in the Capitals' record book. In regular-season play he finished his career ranked first in penalty minutes (2,003), second in games played (872), tied for second in power-play goals (72), third in assists (375), third in points (556), tied for fifth in game-winning goals (29) and tied for eighth in goals (181). He retired leading the franchise in virtually every category: games played (100), goals (25), assists (47), points (72), power-play goals (11) and penalty minutes (372).

Perhaps Hunter summed up his contributions best at his retirement ceremony March 11, 2000, when he said, "I'm not a Wayne Gretzky. I just tried to give my all every night. That work ethic is what the Caps have always been about."

11 MIKE GARTNER

Retired Dec. 28, 2008

Mike Gartner, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame who ranks second in Capitals history in goals (397), assists (392) and points (789), became the fourth player in Capitals history to have his number retired when the No. 11 was raised to the rafters on Dec. 28, 2008.

Gartner spent the first 10 seasons of his 19-year NHL career with the Capitals after Washington selected him in the first round, fourth overall, in the 1979 NHL Draft. He led the team in goals five times and in points four times, scoring at least 35 goals in each of his first nine years in Washington (he had 26 goals when he was traded 56 games into 1988-89, his 10th season). He left the team as its all-time leader in games played, goals, assists, points, power-play goals and game-winning goals.

Gartner was a member of the first six Capitals playoff teams, leading four of those teams in playoff scoring. He recorded 43 points (16 goals, 27 assists) in 47 playoff games for the club and at the time of his trade was Washington's all-time leading playoff scorer.

Gartner played 1,432 career games with five teams in his career, recording 708 goals (sixth in NHL history) and 627 assists for 1,335 points. Inducted in the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2001, Gartner holds the NHL record for the most 30-goal seasons (17) and shares the record for most consecutive 30-goal seasons (15). He played in seven NHL All-Star Games and three times won the NHL's fastest skater competition at the NHL All-Star Game.

Capitals Logo & Uniform History

The Capitals current look, unveiled prior to the 2007-08 season, boasts ties to the franchise's past both in color and design.

Red, white and blue brought the Capitals back to their original colors, in shades that align with those of the American flag and symbolically strengthen the Capitals' ties to their home city of Washington, D.C., the nation's capital.

Countless Capitals fans had emailed owner Ted Leonsis asking – pleading in some cases – for a return to the red, white and blue that the team wore for 20 years. Spurred on by those requests – along with similar convictions held by Leonsis, team president Dick Patrick, the rest of the ownership group and vice president and general manager George McPhee – the Capitals worked with Reebok to develop the new look.

The primary logo draws upon the team's original jerseys, but with a fresh, bold font. The letters lean forward, representing the team's commitment to innovation and forward thinking. The three stars represent Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. – the three main geographic areas in the Capitals' market – and align with hockey tradition, as each game's top players are named its three stars. The letter t, like in the original uniforms, depicts a hockey stick, with a puck at the end.

The shoulder patch incorporates imagery from the Capitals' most recent uniforms, which featured an eagle and the Capitol dome. Here those Washington, D.C., icons come together in a distinctive look. The eagle's wings are raised at its sides and help form the shape of a "W," representing Washington, D.C., the world's most powerful and influential city.

The Washington Capitals media relations staff works to provide information about the team and access to players, coaches and management in a timely manner for members of the media. It is the proud recipient of the Dick Dillman Award as the Professional Hockey Writers' Association's choice as the top media relations group in the Eastern Conference in four of the past five seasons.

CREDENTIALS & MEDIA SERVICES

Media Credentials

Credentials are issued to media who cover the Capitals both seasonally and on a game-by-game basis and are required for admission to the media areas at both Verizon Center and Kettler Capitals Iceplex. All credentials must include the bearer's name and affiliation and are non-transferable.

Season credentials: All season credentials are issued prior to the season. Season credentials do not guarantee a seat in the press box; credential holders must contact a member of the Capitals media relations staff in advance in order to reserve seating. A media credential cannot be used to sit in spectator seating areas.

Media who do not have a season credential may apply for single-game credentials. These requests must be received no later than 3 p.m. the day prior to a game. The credential is good only for the game printed on the tag and must be displayed to Verizon Center security personnel to gain entry to restricted media areas. A letter on file from the sports editor, news director, etc., addressed to the Media Relations Department, Washington Capitals, 627 N. Glebe Rd., Suite 850, Arlington, VA 22203, will facilitate the issuing of this type of credential.

Non-North American media outlets are required to request media credentials through the National Hockey League by contacting David Keon at dkeon@nhl.com.

Capitals media credentials are issued to print, television, radio and online media outlets that adhere to professional standards, regularly produce quality content and have a demonstrated audience. Space limitations may impact the decision to grant credentials. The final decision on all applications for media credentials rests with the Capitals media relations staff; we reserve the right to revoke media credentials at any time.

News Releases

Accredited members of the media who would like to receive Capitals news releases via e-mail should contact a member of the media relations staff with an e-mail address. Among our releases is "Caps Today," sent daily during the season, which includes an updated practice schedule, recent transactions and the top storyline of the day.

Audio Files

The Capitals regularly post updated audio files in mp3 format on their website, WashingtonCaps.com, twitter.com/capsmedia and on TweetMic.com. Radio stations, websites and other media are welcome to utilize these audio clips.

Twitter

Media who would like to receive updates on practice times and other breaking news via twitter or text message can sign up for the team's media Twitter feed at twitter.com/capsmedia. The team also maintains a general Twitter feed at twitter.com/washcaps.

NHLMedia.com

The NHL's password-protected media site includes statistics, press releases, game notes, credential applications and pdf files of every team's media guide. To access the site, visit http://media.nhl.com.

MEDIA FACILITIES – VERIZON CENTER

Media Entrance

The media entrance to Verizon Center is located on 6th Street. Credentials to Capitals games may be picked up at the media entrance, which is open from three hours prior to game time until the midway point of the first period. All media must show a photo ID and are subject to a security search.

Press Work Area and Press Lounge

The press work area and press lounge are located on the Event Level (ice level). The press lounge is located directly adjacent to the media work area. Meals are served buffet style two hours prior to game time. All food must be consumed in the press lounge and may not be taken to the press box. The press work area is located adjacent to the press lounge. There are reserved seats for beat media and additional work spaces with telephones and wireless Internet access.

Press Box

The press box is on the sixth floor of Verizon Center on the penalty box side of the ice. Seats are on an assigned basis only. Please check the seating charts in the press room or press box, or check with the press box attendant for your seat assignment. The press box features wireless Internet access.

In order to ensure seating in the press box, it is necessary for all media to notify the Capitals media relations staff of their attendance by 1 p.m. the day prior to the game. If you do not have an assigned seat, please check with a member of the media relations staff.

Media Parking

Media parking at Verizon Center is extremely limited and assigned prior to the season. There are numerous lots within walking distance of Verizon Center, and Verizon Center is adjacent to the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metro Station. Gallery Place can be reached on the Red, Yellow and Green lines. It is also one stop away from Metro Center, which provides service to the Blue and Orange lines. Metro will remain open at least one hour after the conclusion of any playoff games that go into overtime.

Photography

Verizon Center has a limited number of photo positions. All photo positions will be assigned prior to the game by team photographer Mitchell Layton. Daily print and wire services receive priority for the prime positions. Freelance photographers will not receive credentials; all photographers must be on assignment. Still photographers must receive permission in advance from a member of the media relations staff for postgame admission to the Capitals locker room.

MEDIA FACILITIES – KETTLER CAPITALS ICEPLEX

Work Room

Kettler Capitals Iceplex features a media work room adjacent to the ice, near the entrance of the Capitals locker room. The work room features ethernet cables and complimentary wireless Internet access.

Media Information

MEDIA ACCESS AND INTERVIEWS

Practice Sessions

The media has access to all team practices at all practice facilities, including game-day skates, in accordance with the NHL Media Regulations. The media is allowed to enter the team locker room five minutes after the first regular player who has participated in the entire practice leaves the ice. In the event of a team meeting, the media will be allowed access immediately following the conclusion of the meeting. The locker room is closed to the media prior to and during practice.

Per NHL Media Regulations, media access at Kettler Capitals Iceplex is limited to the team's main locker room and the entrance to the locker room. All other areas of the training center are off limits to media.

Capitals game-day skates are typically held at 10 a.m. at Kettler.

Pregame

The Capitals locker room is closed prior to game time, although requested players will be made available during a 30-minute window beginning two hours prior to faceoff, with priority given to broadcast rightsholders.

Television networks, including rightsholders, requesting pregame interviews with a player are asked to request these times prior to or during the morning skate. Head coach Bruce Boudreau is available to the media outside the Capitals' locker room two hours prior to faceoff.

Postgame

The Capitals locker room will be open to working media five minutes after the conclusion of the game. Head coach Bruce Boudreau's press conference will follow approximately 15 minutes after the game in the Interview Room (adjacent to the Press Room)

If the media wishes to interview a player who is not present in the locker room, contact a Capitals media relations representative who will locate the player.

Video

All outlets are prohibited by the National Hockey League from shooting game footage of any Capitals game being played at Verizon Center.

Television and online outlets are welcome to shoot Capitals practices, but are restricted to broadcasting five minutes of on-ice video content from any one practice. There is no limit to the length of interviews that outlets may broadcast.

Players' Personal Telephone Numbers

At no time will a player's home or mobile phone number be released to either the media or the public unless the player specifically authorizes such release. Members of the media attempting to reach players must do so through the Capitals media relations staff; failure to do so, regardless of a media member's existing relationship with a player, may result in forfeiture of credentials.

Team Medical Rooms

Team medical rooms located at Verizon Center, Kettler Capitals Iceplex or any other practice facility are off limits to the media at all times.

Autographs

Media attending Capitals practices or games are strictly forbidden from requesting autographs. Any person with a media pass observed asking players for autographs will be asked to leave and may not be granted credentials in the future.

Order of Selection for 2011 Entry Draft

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2012 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2012 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points have the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

In the first round of the 2012 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

a) The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above);
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2012 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2012 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2012 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.
